Number 5

Website: www.sapphirequilters.org

Next meeting date: January 10, 2012

P. O. Box 768 Stevensville MT 59870

This is going to be a cut and paste newsletter. I think the boxes in the garage are half rabbit because they seem to double every night. See you Tuesday . . .
Linda

Note from President Joann:

Our January meeting is planned so we're good to go there. Jim Carroll from Anaconda will be putting on the program. He handles antique quilts and all else antique sewing related to quote Becky's email. His honorarium will be $100 which is very reasonable. Jim is also willing to have club members bring in antique quilts and he will look at them. A sign-up sheet was at the December meeting as we need to limit this or the night would go too long.

Mini Class by Pam Matter: Pam will be teaching Cathedral Windows prior to the meeting in preparation for the Saturday class. Bring paper, pencil, and scissors to practice this method before you try it with fabric.

Note from Theresa:

A roster is ready for distribution with the next month's news letter. We have 47 members which is great!

The Birthday list for January includes Mary Hayes on the 6th; Robin Anthony on the 10th; Judy Linhart on the 15th; Rebecca Stapert on the 18th; and Julie Davis on the 20th.

The Fat Quarter for the Month is Winter Blues - Snowflakes, snow, frost etc., anything in blues.

Block of the Month Remember to bring you completed blocks back. Mickie is looking forward to getting them all in so she can get the quilt made for our Sunshine Project.
